

RED MILL COUNTY PARK

Located on 160 acres just south of Michigan City off U.S. Highway 421. Nearly 20 acres were turned over to the Parks Department from the Park Foundation for the development of multi-use trails. Hiking and mountain biking, fishing, picnic areas, restroom facility, and a playground are available. Canada Lodge has been remodeled and the County Park Administrative offices are now located there, as well as the Patricia J. Smith Hall rental facility. The property includes the 108-acre Little Calumet Headwaters State dedicated Nature Preserve with 23 acres of wetlands and open water.
